Sverker Källgården joins as new CEO for Cibus Nordic Real Estate AB (publ)

The board of directors of Cibus Nordic Real Estate AB (publ) ("Cibus",) has appointed Sverker Källgården as new CEO of the company. Mr Källgården will start his new position on 4 March 2019.

Sverker Källgården has an extensive experience from the real estate sector. Most recently, he served for five years as the CEO of ByggPartner, a Swedish construction company. During his tenure there, he led ByggPartner's transformation into a profitable company suitable for listing. He successfully oversaw the listing of the company on Nasdaq First North and continued working on expanding the company's investor base and increasing the knowledge of the company. Prior to ByggPartner, Mr Källgården held senior positions both in NCC and in Hufvudstaden, where he amongst other things served for seven years as CEO of AB Nordiska Kompaniet "NK".

- "Cibus is currently in a very interesting phase. As the business is healthy, growing and performing according to business plan, the key focus areas lie in increasing the knowledge of the company amongst investors at large as well as in creating an internal organisation for the company. We strongly believe that in Sverker, we have found the most suitable person to lead the company forward.", says Patrick Gylling, Chairman of the Board.
